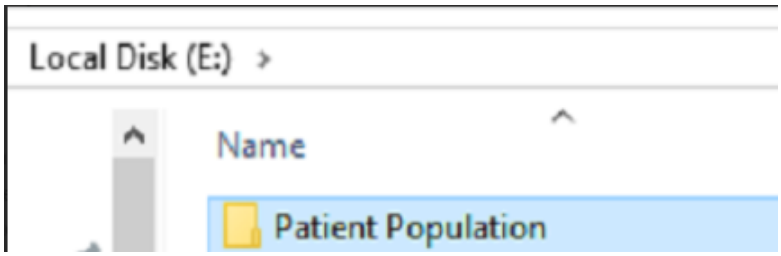
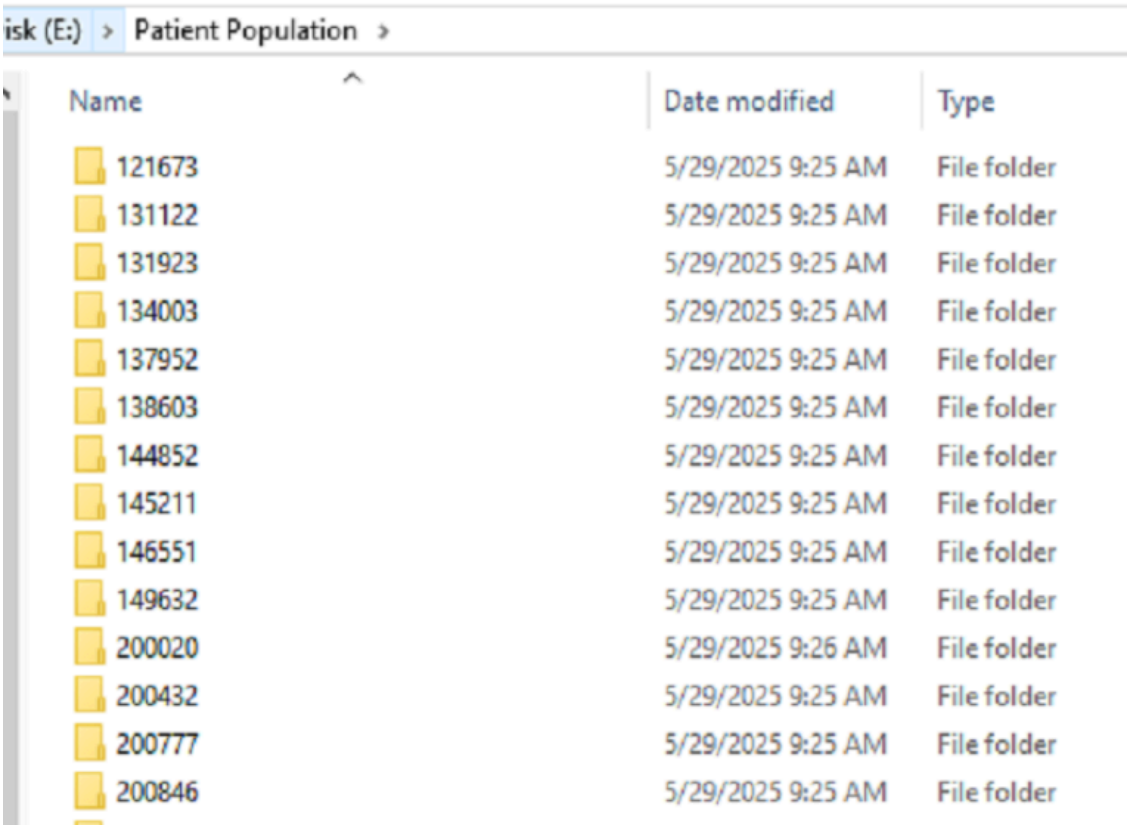
ASP DIY Sample - Electronic Health Information Export

When the export is completed, the Patient Population folder is located on the drive you selected to export the data to:



The individual patient file folders are listed by account number:



Example of the individual data files under the patient folder:

